Kenneth B. Sandler has been a registered CPA in South Florida for over 25 years. He honed his skills in tax planning and IRS representation while working for several international CPA firms. I always wanted to be an independent financial advisor and that's what attracted me to Legacy Wealth Management. They have given me an unlimited source of investment products and varied financial platforms that enables me to provide my clients with the most superior unbiased advice in the industry.

My number one priority is to first get to know my clients better before making any decisions regarding their financial investments. You need to understand your client's goals, dreams, and concerns before you can advise them properly. Ken's comprehensive life planning methodology also serves both the client and advisor in many ways.

Ken donates part of his time by serving on the board of Ramat Shalom in Plantation, Florida. The synagogue has given our family so much over the years. I thoroughly enjoy my involvement with the other members.

He has been married to Lisi for over 19 years and has two beautiful daughters, Sierra and Sommer.

An avid sportsman, Ken enjoys all outdoor sports and can often be seen rooting his Florida Panthers to another victory at the Bank Atlantic Center.

As a result of living within two miles of our office, Ken can easily meet clients after normal business hours. To speak with him or schedule a time to meet please contact him directly by cell phone at 954-683-1189.
