Legacy Wealth Management Recognized as Premier Advisors in South Florida

Plantation, FL November 18, 2011- Legacy Wealth Management has recently been recognized as an elite group of advisory practices in the South Florida region by the National Association of Board Certified Advisory Practices. This achievement was determined through a review performed by Legacy Wealth Management's peers from all industry channels along with proprietary and objective evaluations. As a NABCAP Premier Advisor, Legacy Wealth Management is part of an exclusive group representing the best in quality management. NABCAP is the first non-profit 501(c)(3) organization to create a discerning process to help identify the top quality advisory practices in order to better serve the investing community.
