Paul F. Goldbach founded his financial planning practice in 1983 and works extensively in the areas of Comprehensive Financial Planning, Asset Management, and Alternative Investments.

He believes that weaving personal values, convictions, and dreams into the financial planning process leads to true wealth, rather than just the accumulation of material assets. Many advisors provide investment management services, yet few successfully integrate them into a total wealth management offering. Paul provides his clients financial, investment, and estate planning solutions that work together to support their unique needs and objectives.

A resident of South Florida since 1974, Paul resides in Coral Springs, with his wife, Diane, of over 27 years. He and Diane have two grown children, Whitney and Spencer. Paul is also an avid musician/guitarist who continues to compose, record, and perform. He is actively involved in the music ministry at his church at Calvary Chapel Ft. Lauderdale.
